VP Events, Inc. Receives Gala Nomination for Best Wedding!

Mary Litzsinger, CSEP and Karey Williams of VP Events, Inc. have been nominated for a coveted Gala Award- category: Best Wedding under $500.00 per guest. The annual Gala Awards are given each year by Special Event Magazine, the premier industry publication, to recognize the finest work in special events each year worldwide. Over 300 entries were submitted from Australia, Canada, Germany, England, Denmark, Ireland, Israel, Thailand, and the United States. This is VP Events, Inc.'s first Gala Award nomination.

VP Events, Inc was nominated for this award for the work they did producing the "Haber Wedding," entitled Urban Chic, Miami Style. The wedding was held at Bacara Resort and Spa on Labor Day weekend 2004. Red, red, red was the color concept. The wedding ceremony was staged along the beautiful Santa Barbara coastline, with panoramic ocean views. Latin rhythms, a sultry lounge, the flavors of Miami, cranberry mojitos and black cherry martinis, all added dimension to the event. Two long feasting tables centered a room draped in red silk chiffon. Red hurricaned candles and blocked floral arrangements created tablescapes down the center of the dining area building a powerful statement in color and ambiance designed by Scott Corridan with Corridan and Co.

Winners will be picked by the Special Event Advisory board during The Special Event Conference January 10-13. Mary Litzsinger, CSEP and Karey Williams, VP Events, Inc., will attend the Gala Awards Ceremony at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Dallas, TX on January 13th, 2006.

VP Events, Inc. is a full service event design and production company. Our responsibility to our clients is to gain an understating of their vision, whether the event is intended as a celebration of life, a source of funding, for a worthy cause, or to provide purpose for a business strategy or corporation. It is this foundation that has earned VP Events, Inc. the respect as a nationally recognized, award winning company.
