love to plan parties," Jennifer Love Hewitt tells OK!.

So when her sister-in-law, Michelle, announced she was expecting, Jennifer knew what she wanted for the baby shower: photo booths and create-your-own-onesies stations!

Plus, she ordered a cake shaped like a Kewpie doll. "Chocolate and vanilla," Jennifer says. "Really, really good!"

The party, planned with Mary Litzsinger of VP Events, also included finger sandwiches and cupcakes with baby-bootie designs.

Michelle (top left) wed Jennifer's brother Todd (left), a medical resident, in 1996. "Michelle's always fit into our family," Jennifer says.

Guests received gift bags and bedazzled pacifiers. "We wanted them to feel pampered and good," says Jennifer.
